

R11. Regulation for Recognition of Prior Learning

CITY ULE considers prior learning as credit towards a University of York degree. This means students apply to be exempt from taking certain modules on their degree, if they have previous relevant qualifications or experience.

Details of Credit Transfer and recognition of Prior Learning is described in detail in the relevant policy.